

Mornington Peninsula Orchid Society

Coming Events for 2010

Sat 17th April. Mornington Peninsula Orchid Society will be holding a display of orchids in Centro, Rosebud from 9am to 3pm. Cultural information will be available from members in attendance.

Sat 15th May. Mornington Peninsula Orchid Society will be holding a free orchid display and demonstration day in the Uniting Church hall, Dromana from 10am to 2pm. Light morning tea will be provided by the Society.

Talks will be given on cymbidium and Australian native orchid growing and potting followed by a video presentation on the Victorian Orchids of the Year 2009. This is a collection of the very best orchids shown last year in Victoria and will conclude with the overall winner which was grown down in Gippsland.

The day is being run with a view to forming an orchid group in the Dromana/Rosebud area which would meet on an informal basis every month to two months to show, discuss, and enjoy orchids. Everyone is welcome.

Sat 29th May Mornington Peninsula Orchid Society will be running an orchid show and market day. Several commercial orchid nurseries will be in attendance as well as members of our society who will be selling spare orchids at good prices. Culture and potting demonstrations will be available from local orchid experts. Refreshments will be available.

Venue is St Paul's Church Hall, High St, Frankston. 9am-3pm
